

PINCHOT SCORES PENROSE AGENT

CROWD MISSES SLEEK BENNY

Pinchot Also Advises Voters That a Vote for Martin Brumbaugh is a Vote for Penrose—School Teacher
Stands on Issues.

After a triumphant trip through Union county yesterday, Gifford Pin-chot, the Progressive candidate for the United States senate on the Washington party ticket, addressed a rousing meeting in the court house at Lewisburg Monday night, and took the opportunity to deliver a personal message to Ben Focht, the stand-pat Penrose lieutenant.

Focht, who was defeated for congress two years ago, is running again for a vindication, and slipped into the Pinchot meeting for the apparent purpose of learning which way the wind was blowing. He got his bearings in a most unexpected manner.

"I see former Congressman Focht behind those men in the rear," exclaimed Mr. Pinchot during his address. "I want to serve notice on him and all the standpaters like him now that when the bik rats like Mr. Penrose go all the little rats will go, too."

Focht jumped to his feet, but was hissed that he hurried from the court greeted with such an outburst of house in confusion.

"The voters of this state have much to lose and nothing to gain by voting for Senator Penrose," Mr. Pin-chot continued. "Ask yourselves what Senator Penrose has done for you. We
Standard Oil company."

Remember Brumbaugh.

"And when you vote against Senator Penrose you don't want to forget his candidate for governor. Doctor Brumbaugh is one of those over-cunning men like the trust me-candidates who were defeated two years ago when they refused to come out in the open and tell the voters what they stood for. Before he was nominated Doctor Brumbaugh also refused to tell what he stood for, but don't forget that a vote for Doctor Brumbaugh is a vote for the Penrose machine."

More than 800 persons attended the meeting which crowded the courthouse and over which Burgess Ralph Koser, elected on the Washington party ticket last fall, presided. The Bucknell students' band serenaded Mr. Pin-chot and escorted him from the hotel to the hall. The other speaker of the evening was C. L. Johnson, Washington party candidate for congress
Ben Focht.

Contents of Large Coffee Pot Emptied Over Her Body.

Saline Doorman, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flegal, on Park street, was seriously scalded shortly before noon today when the contents of a coffee pot were thrown over the upper part of her body.

The girl is about 16 years of age and was pulling the pot of hot coffee towards her when the accident happened. Miss Loise Denning, who was nearby, gave valuable assistance in relieving the girl's sufferings, and a physician was called.

Miss Doorman's injuries are very severe.

BOUGHT LUMBER TRACT

Dr. Chase Secures 600,000 Feet of Logs Near Curry Run.

Dr. C. E. Chase has just closed a contract for about 600,000 feet of logs near Curry Run, where he expects to move his mill during the coming week.
This is a nice piece of timber and it will take some time to manufacture it into lumber. He expects to get a competent man to oversee the work and he will devote his time entirely to his profession.

RECORD WHEAT CROP

Prospective Yield.

Nine hundred million bushels of wheat, almost half of the average world's wheat production, and a new record for the United States, is the prospective total yield to the farms of the country this year, the department of agriculture announced Monday in its June crop report.

The enormous crop will be 137,000-000 bushels more than ever before was grown in the United States in any one year. Excellent weather for the growing crop and an increase of 6.4 per cent. in the acreage planted to wheat are responsible.

There also will be large yields of oats and barley, probably second in size in the history of the nation.

DUBOIS BOROUGH LOSES

Verdict of $10,500 Secured by Man Injured on Street.

In the United States court Monday
the case of Pancoast against the borough of Dubois was tried before the United States court. A. L.
Cole appeared for the plaintiff and
City Attorney McCall and W. C. Pentz
for the borough.

of $10,500 for injuries received by being struck by a large campaign banner, which blew down during a windstorm. He had sued for $25,000 damages.

The borough will appeal to higher court as it claims that it is not the responsible party in the affair, placing the blame on the parties who erected the banner.

Milton Brown, of Clearfield, was on the jury which heard this case.

A special train to and from Mahaffey will be run over the New York Central railroad at a round trip fare of 90 cents.

U. S. WARSHIPS TO HALT ARMS CARGO

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 10.—Mexico will not be asked by the United States to pay war indemnity. The Huerta government has learned through the American delegates that the Wilson administration will be content to have set up in Mexico a stable government

To Halt Cargo of Arms.

Washington, June 10.—The United States government definitely decided to prevent the steamship Antilla from landing arms and ammunition at Tampico for the Constitutionalists.

at Tampico, received orders from the navy department to be on the lookout for the Antilla and to prevent by force

Line Officers Refuse to Act.

New York, June 10.—Denial was made at the offices of the Ward line that that company will make any move to prevent the landing at Tampico of the ammunition consigned on the Antilla to the Constitutionalists leaders.

According to a report, Dock Commissioner Smith had been requested by the federal government to use his influence with the steamship company to prevent the landing of the munitions.

"The shipment was cleared from this port in due form. Collector Malone was informed of the nature of the shipment and asked if there was any objection from Washington to its being
said an official.

"Now the company has shipped the consignment and is responsible to the shippers. If we should refuse to land it we would be liable for damages. If any move is to be made to prevent the landing of the munitions it will have

American Lines.

AFRAID OF ASSASSINATION.

Peace Negotiations From Vera Cruz.
Wants to Be Under Protecting Hand
dicates—Carranza's Reply Ready.

Vera Cruz, June 10.—General Huerta, his minister of war, General Blanquet, and the remnants of his cabinet are considering the advisability of coming to Vera Cruz to complete mediation negotiations.

Information from a source such as to make it authentic is that the plan now under consideration is for Blanquet first to come here, in company with the Brazilian minister, for a conference with General Funston regarding the nature of Huerta's reception and whether he would be welcomed within the American lines.

It was known that the Brazilian minister in the City of Mexico either has been or will be requested by the dictator to sound Washington regarding his entrance of the American lines.

From a Mexican who has been in touch with the highest officials in the City of Mexico it is learned Huerta has become convinced that it is unsafe for his family to remain longer in the capital, but that he cannot devise a way to get them out of the city.

He has been informed that the rebels under Dr. Comanche are well aware of his desire to leave the ruin of his government and that they have made preparations to wreck trains on either railroad out of the capital.

Huerta fears treachery on the part of some of the few whom he would
with his family, as they might give the rebels their chance to assassinate him.

Premature rumors were heard in army circles that Blanquet had actually arrived at the American army's outposts around Vera Cruz and was await-
could not be verified from the American side.

CARRANZA'S REPLY READY.

Junta Says He Will Accept Mediation
on His Own Terms.

Washington, June 10.—Carranza's reply to the invitation to participate in mediation was expected by the A. B. C.

admit that it accepts "mediation on his own terms" and they are inclined to doubt whether the reply would be satisfactory to the mediators.

It was stated here that everything
protocol. The United States commissioners communicated a counter proposal to the mediators, which differs in several respects from the draft approved by Huerta; but, according to Secretary Bryan, the points of difference are such as not to present any insurmountable obstacle. He believes that the

Expect Protocol to Be Drafted.

It was hoped in official quarters here that the joint session at Niagara Falls, when all of the parties to mediation are to be present, will find the drafting of the tentative protocol begun. If the suggestions of the United States are accepted it will make no difference whether Carranza's participation comes in time.

His cause is said to have been fully taken care of and provision made, so that the Constitutionalist will have adequate representation in the propos-

Only Twenty-five Allowed to Question

Pittsburgh, June 10.—Stringent orders from the police of East Pittsburgh reduced picketing at the West-
10,000 workers are on strike, to a system.

Only twenty-five strikers were allowed on the bridge leading to the main gate of the electric plant among them five women. They were allowed to question persons entering the plant but they did it politely, knowing that insolence would result in the immediate withdrawal of all pickets. Around
hills overlooking the works hundreds of strikers congregated, closely watching every move of the company's watchmen.

Rumors that strike breakers were to
strikers who refuse to believe the story has settled down to a fast of endurance.

Judge Bell Grants Licenses to

Impression Was That Order for Indictments Meant the Intention of the Court to Refuse the Applications—Full Text of the New Order.

By jumping at conclusions Tuesday this paper and a large number of per-
the order of the court, directing the indictment of George Mullen and E.
J. Smith, of Grampian, on the charge of violating the law in the sale of liquor at their hotels, if such action shall be asked for the district attorney by the remonstrants or their attorney, also disposed of the applica-
hotels.

This was an error, however, as the decree referred to a matter connected with the license applicants and did not touch upon the licenses themselves. Last evening Judge Bell filed a decision in the Grampian cases, granting the licenses to Messrs Mullen and
will be found related in the following article.

Decision of the Court.

In the cases the petition of Mullen is signed by 28 voters of Grampian borough, and that of E. J. Smith by 23. A supplemental petition in favor of Smith is signed by 50 voters. After deducting duplications it appears
The remonstrance is signed by 41 men and 50 women of Grampian, of whom T. E. Moore afterwards signs
the supplemental petition and H. B.
Baehler signs all the papers filed.
Based on the voters alone the weight is with the applications, which is reduced by the fact that 50 women of Grampian also remonstrate and 66 men and 12 men of Penn township re-monstrate, which is to be considered though it cannot be given the same

Must Present Facts.

Measured by the rule of equality,
the weight of the petitions for and against is somewhat with the applicants. The character of E. J. Smith for sobriety was attacked, but the proof was insufficient. Even in such
must be shown to be a fit person, his fitness is presumed and is fortified by his original petition, and his unfitness can only be shown either by general reputation or by proof of facts which show unfitness. That some people
sufficient. Probably few men can be found who are not attacked by some as to certain phases of their characters.

Question of Necessity.

Immorality at the Aberdeen hotel was also asserted, but solely by wholly incompetent witnesses. This is a judicial proceeding and some regard must be paid to the rules of evidence.
Various witnesses swear there is no necessity for license, but these gentlemen do not state facts, but express their conclusions already stated in their petitions. When the court or-
as to necessity it meant an actual
evidence the court is not able to say, either from the evidence of the papers
shown. Specific charges of violation of law are made, and as to the Grampian house the definite charges consist principally of sales to William Batlet, as to whom there is no evidence of sales during the past year;
sales to Clarence Warden, as to whom it is not clear when the sales were made and whose reputation seems to be that of an intemperate man; Dan Nolan, whose reputation is not shown, except that he was drunk on the occasion referred to; Al Mc-Donald, who is said by a witness to get on periodical drunks, though the witness also states that he never heard McDonald's reputation for sobriety referred to.

Defines Intemperance.

This testimony is hardly sufficient to establish violations of law. To be a man of known intemperate habits a man must be visibly affected by liquor to such an extent and frequency that it is spoken of in the community.
sons, but the only case which can be said to measure up to the standard of proof would be that of Clarence Warden. As to the Aberdeen hotel the evidence is stronger. In addition to sales to McDonald and Nolan, there are sales to A. J. Anderson, Al Kandall and others and in this respect the evidence approaches the border line very closely.

The worst feature of both these cases is the general condition prevailing at Grampian, according to the testimony. There is evidence that drunk en men obstruct the street; that disorderly conduct and vulgar language offend the women of the town and the
en persons are seen coming out of the hotels, and that the use of liquor is maintained with evident disregard by somebody, of the law.

The licensees, allege that this is entirely due to liquor obtained by persons who cannot buy at the hotels,
and that for this they are not responsible. This excuse is becoming worn
the part of licensees in any town to prevent liquor from reaching the pre-
that such an effort is being actively and honestly made, licensees must expect to be held responsible for conditions.

No matter what may be the need of Grampian for license that necessity cannot override the interest of public order, and unless the condition complained of absolutely stops in Gram-
public ended, this town will go without license.

Granted on Condition.

The court will grant these licenses with a rule to show cause why they should not be revoked, and will also file an order directing the district attorney to send up indictments against each of these licensees for sales of liquor to men of known intemperate habits and to men visibly affected by intoxicating liquor, which indictments shall be presented at the September sessions, if request so to do is made of the district attorney by the remonstrants or their attorney and in case of conviction the licenses will be revoked.

This morning Messrs. Mullen and Smith appeared at the prothonotary's office, secured their orders and after paying the fee were given their licenses, with which they returned to Grampian, highly elated.

ROOSEVELT GUEST OF SPANISH RULERS

Cordially Welcomed and Entertained at Luncheon.

Queen Victoria of Spain entertained Theodore Roosevelt at luncheon at their summer palace, La Granja, forty miles from Madrid.

ital early, accompanied by Ambassador Willard and the staff of the American embassy. The party drove by automobile to the royal residence, and the entire stay there occupied less than four hours.

The king welcomed Mr. Roosevelt
most cordially and expressed his pleasure at the forthcoming marriage of Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Willard, daughter of the ambassador. King Alfonso and Mr. Roosevelt first met at
London.

While here Mr. Roosevelt is accorded all the privileges given to one time

Discussing Mr. Roosevelt's presence
Senator Dato, the prime minister, said:
"Miss Willard's marriage has aroused great interest in Spanish society, as Colonel Willard and his family have won golden opinions everywhere."

"As Mr. Roosevelt's trip is purely a family affair, no official reception will be given."

The premier and his family will attend the wedding.
"There are other Americans," a court official said "whom we Spaniards respect and admire more than Mr. Roosevelt."

"There are ignorant and uneducated people everywhere, and if anything disagreeable happens to Mr. Roosevelt during his stay every educated Span-

English War Party of Rogers by "The Standard"

PARLIAMENT TO TAKE

From Responsibility and Power men to Dis of Mammals Ministers Quoted and All Power the Measures.

London, June 10.—There was doubt shown that London will, to all intents and purposes, be "The Standard" and that the war ready to turn.

Several prominent church leaders out in interviews concerning the treatment of outcasts by the from now on. "Let them die" could be the general slogan of those views.

Then, it is known that these church with responsibility for a number historical or public buildings, the ory at Christchurch, Hampshire, among them, have requested the guards and buildings to guard the aries, with instructions to shoot quarter.

Last, but not least, the government is moving out for a change. Any ment met it was generally understood that the action would speedily suggestions for ending the long erated "reign of terror" and placing the militants accountable.

and their congregations, some of church hands who have come out favor of ending the long "reign of ror" were quoted as follows:

The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, the famous Jesuit: "There is nothing ethically wrong in letting them die. Let them start at once and settle up for last time."

The Rev. Arthur Widdowson, vicar of St. Matthew's, Brighton: "If the government refuse food they should be allowed to die."

The Rev. Richard Free, vicar of St.
Clement's, Fulham: "I think the question very good. I have no objection to it for many months."

No Power For Republic.
Meanwhile the militants themselves are as busy as the proverbial bees their plans for harrying the king and queen and other authorities of the realm and of adopting other courses for improving their condition ness upon the public.

It is feared that the disorganized exhibition at the home show, where the militants booted the monarch, to be tined to be repeated with variations many times in the near future unless some radical action is taken. It is expected that the suffragettes will not allow the "call"—unwelcomed as it
can embassy to go unresisted.

Other activities of the "party" during the last twenty-four hours including the smashing with hammers of marble tombstones in a churchyard at Hayes, in Essex, and the defacing of the wall of the church, the changing of the inscription "Votes For Women" on the walls of St. Edmund's church in Northampton and a score or more of minor acts of vandalism.

When are the fashions of 1914 to change from the ridiculous to the sublime?

Good evening! Of course you de-
repeating what you heard of your

In granting the applications for liquor license at the two hotels at Gram plan Judge Bell ordered that indictments be presented to the grand jury at the September sessions of criminal court, directed against the two landlords, provided the remonstrants against the licenses decide to take such action. The court stated that there was evidence that these two applicants had sold liquor in violation of law.

This action of the court ought to serve as a warning to other hotel keepers and bar tenders in this county. When Mrs. Purcell, president of the State W. C. T. U., stated last Sunday that the liquor laws were not enforced in Clearfield she spoke the truth, and those hotel keepers who persist in selling liquor contrary to law and who disregard the rules and regulations issued by Judge Bell will eventually find themselves in court, with a prospect that they will lose their licenses.

Men of intemperate habits and boys under legal age have little difficulty in procuring liquor in this town, as their drunken orgies nightly testify. Somebody sells these men and boys intoxicating liquors, and it is the duty of the constables of the several wards to discover the offenders and help to bring them before the court. There is also a law punishing the persons who buy liquor for those who are unable to buy it for themselves, and some of the degenerates who en-

to book.

MANSLAUGHTER.

Wistar Elliot, a young lawyer of Williamsport, has been held responsible by a coroner's jury for the death of a young woman whom he ran down with his automobile in the streets of that city. The attorney now faces a charge of manslaughter, and there is said to be proof that he
of thirty miles an hour when he ran down the woman.

It may surprise some of the motorists in Clearfield to learn that an auto mobilit who runs his machine through the streets or on the public roads in a reckless manner and who runs over and kills human beings may be charged and tried for manslaughter.
Some of the motorists who run their cars on Third and Fourth streets at from twenty to thirty miles an
kill anybody because people have been able to get out of the way of the cars should bear in mind the fact that the law never sleeps and that sooner or later the reckless autoist comes to grief.

It isn't because the graduate cannot settle the question, but because the president has mislaid the gradu-
been called upon to solve the Mexican question.

Londoners are becoming so angry at the suffragets that these may be permitted to starve to death when they inaugurate a hunger strike in prison.

Third street, from Market to Locust, is anything but a paying advertisement for Clearfield.

The young girl who doesn't know
she is pretty will eventually land in the lunacy court.

Pinchot is throwing hot shot into the Penrose camp.

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

his wrecked aeroplane two miles out in Lake Michigan by an aviator in another hydroplane.

Thomas Glipin of Spark, Okla., a player in an amateur baseball game, was almost instantly killed by a foul ball which struck him over the heart.

The president named Otto T. Wood marshal for Texas, Perry B. Miller attorney for western Kentucky and Clarence Merritt attorney for eastern Texas.

Unless there are unforeseen developments in the Mexican situation the president will take his family to Cornish, N.
H., the latter part of the week and remain there over Sunday.

Representative J. Harry Covington of Boston, Md., was nominated by President Wilson to be chief justice of the District of Columbia supreme court. He is a Democrat and has taken a leading part in framing trust legislation.

Judge R. M. Wanamaker, of the Ohio supreme court, will lecture here during Clearfield Chautauqua week, July 6 to 12, on the subject, "Partisanship vs. Patriotism". The Chautauqua program will be filled with lecturers representative of every branch of public life. There will be college professors, professional lecturers, preachers and statesmen.

There are four distinguished members of the judiciary who are lecturing in Chautauqua courses. These are Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Den-

JUDGE R. M. WANAMAKER.

ver Judge Marcus A. Kavanagh, of Chicago; Judge Blair, of Adams county, Ohio; and Judge Wanamaker, of the Ohio supreme court. Before becoming a supreme court justice, Judge Wanamaker served seven years as common pleas judge at Akron, Ohio.
During these seven years he ably demonstrated that the American trial court may be speeded up to a semblance of the promptitude of European courts, if the judge be determined upon doing it. Judge Wanamaker's lecture dwells upon this problem of a more efficient judiciary.

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble.

and overworks the kidneys in their ef-
Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids
and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful efervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

COL. ROOSEVELT'S STORY OF HIS LAST GREAT ADVENTURE

Truculent Little Peccaries, Wasps That Prey and Formidable Spiders.

WITH the return of Colonel Roosevelt after seven months spent in the wilds of South America public interest in the former president is divided between the stories of the thrilling adventures he encountered and conjecture as to his future political activities. The big question which he has not answered is, Will he run for the presidency in 1916? Another element of interest attaching to the colonel's return is the wedding of his son Kermit, who shared the perils of the Brazil wilderness with his father. Kermit is to marry Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of Colonel J. E. Willard, American ambassador to Spain, in Madrid on June 11.

Getting back to the United States the last of June, Colonel Roosevelt may start in September on a transcontinental stamping tour. This plan is contingent upon his health.

That the South American jungle trip is the last big adventure afield contemplated by Colonel Roosevelt he does not deny. "I went the ultimate," was his expression for the long odds

halt the journey until he was better. "I can't do it," was the undaunted reply. "I'll go as far as I can, and when I am unable to proceed farther I'll stay right there and fight it out alone." That night the colonel was in a critical state. "If I'm to go it's all right," he told the party's doctor, "but see that the others don't stop for me." However, he got better in the night and the next morning was past the crisis. "Knew I'd make it," he said, grinning.

WE had been out about three hours when one of the dogs gave a tongue in a large belt of woodland and jungle to the left of our line of march through the marsh. The other dogs ran to the sound, and after awhile the long barking told that the thing, whatever it was, was at bay or else in some refuge. We made our way toward the place on foot. The dogs were baying excitedly at the mouth of a huge hollow log, and a very short explains diversity in the traits by which nature achieves the perpetuation of species. Among the warrior and predacious insects the prowess is in some cases of such type as to render the possessor practically immune from danger. In other cases the condition of its exercise may normally be the sacrifice of the life of the possessor.

Fighting Spiders.

There are wasps that prey and formidable fighting spiders, which yet instinctively so handle themselves that the prey practically never succeeds in either defending itself or retreating, being captured and paralyzed with unerring efficiency and with entire security to the wasp. The wasp's safety is absolute.

On the other hand, these fighting ants, including the soldiers even among the termites, are frantically eager for a success which generally means their annihilation: the condition of their efficiency is absolute indifference to their own security. Probably the majority of the ants that actually lay hold on a foe suffer death in consequence; certainly they not merely run the risk of but eagerly invite death.

Cherrie and Miller had secured a lit tle owl in the chaco, and it was traveling with them in a basket. It was a dear little bird, very tame and affectionate. It liked to be handled and petted, and when Miller, its especial protector, came into the cabin it would make queer little noises as a signal that it wished to be taken up and perched on his hand.

Cherrie and Miller had trapped many mammals. Among them was a tayra weasel, whitish above and black below, as big and bloodthirsty as a fisher martin, and a tiny opossum no bigger than a mouse. They had taken four species of opossum, but they had not found the curious water opossum which they had obtained on the rivers flowing into the Caribbean sea.

This opossum, which is black and white, swims in the streams like a muskrat or otter, catching fish and living in burrows which open under water. Miller and Cherrie were puzzled to know why the young thrive, leading such an existence of constant immersion. One of them once found a female swimming and diving freely with four quite well grown young in her pouch.

Queer Looking Birds.

and no especial affinities with other modern birds. In one meadow by a pond we saw three marsh deer, a buck and two does. They stared at us with their thickly haired tails raised on end. These tails are black underneath instead of white as in our white tail deer.

One of the vagaries of the ultra concealing colorationists has been to uphold the (incidentally quite preposterous) theory that the tail of our deer is colored white beneath so as to harmonize with the sky and thereby mislead the cougar or wolf at the critical moment when it makes its spring, but this marsh deer shows a black instead of a white flag, and yet has just as much need of protection from its enemies, the jaguar and the cougar.

Biting Jungle Insects.

The fire ants, of which I have spoken, are generally found on a species of small tree or sapling with a greenish trunk. They bend the whole body as they bite, the tail and head being thrust downward. A few seconds after the bite the poison causes considerable pain; later it may make a tiny festering sore.

There is certainly the most extraordinary

Stores Closed and Newspapers Not Published in All Cities.

Rome, June 10.—The Socialist strike, called as a protest for the killing of several of their faith at Ancona, has spread to practically all the principal Italian cities.

In nearly all, as in Rome, the street cars and cabs were not running, newspapers were not publishing, stores were closed down, and business in general was at a standstill. Troops patrolled the streets.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Henry James Stuart-Richardson, seventy-seven, fifth Earl of Castlestead, died in London. He was the male representative of the royal Stuarts.

Juan Buitrago, professor of music and teacher of many famous musicians, died in Florence, Italy. Among his pupils best known to this country are the late Edward A. MacDowell and Albert Spalding.

Michael T. Barrett, who represented Essex county in the New Jersey senate and also in the assembly and who was prominent as a lawyer, died at his summer home in Elberon of Bright's disease. He was fifty-eight years old.

Edward G. Brill, vice president and treasurer of J. G. Brill & Co., car builders, the last of the four sons of the late James G. Brill, who founded the car works, died of pneumonia at his home in Atlantic City at the age of sixty-three years.

CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane, which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Oseola Mills, June 10.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkinson, one of our oldest and most highly respected women, died at her home on Hale street at an early hour Tuesday morning. She had not been in good health for some time and recently contracted pneumonia, which was the cause of her death. Deceased was over 82 years of age and had lived here for almost 48 years. Her husband, Joseph Wilkinson, died about four years ago.

The following children survive her: Samuel, Thomas of Vineland, N. J., Mrs. John Bratton, Mrs. William Jones, of California; Joseph William, and Mrs. Richard Thomas. Funeral will probably be held Thursday afternoon. Interment will be made in Umbria cemetery.

William Edwards, who went to the western states about seven months ago, hoping to be benefited in health, returned this morning. We regret to state that the young man has not been benefited as he had hoped to be. William says there were too many Mormons out there, and old Pennsylvania is good enough for him.

Miss Rachel and Mary Biddle returned yesterday from a week's visit at New Millport, where they attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Biddle, of that place.

As a precaution against the further spreading of scarlet fever in this town, several dogs belonging to families in the neighborhood of Albert James' home have been shot. We are informed that before the nature of the disease with which Francis James was stricken was known to family the boy's pet dog was allowed to be with him and then played with other dogs in that locality. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

The interest in the Tabernacle meetings is waxing warmer in competition with the weather man. There was no service Monday, it being rest day for the evangelistic party. The chorus choir met for rehearsal at 7.30 and put in an hour of solid work. Additional ventilators have been placed in the side of the building, which will add to the comfort of all. Lights have been placed around the outside of the building also, which will add to its appearance.

The committees appointed to arrange for "special delegations" are already at work. The Masonic fraternity and the Patriotic Sons of America, at their meetings Monday night, appointed committees to arrange for a night when special trains will bring delegations from neighboring towns. The P. O. S. of A. placed a large American flag on the building Tuesday evening.

MANAGER SHELTON RESIGNS

No Successor Has as Yet Been Appointed.

George R. Sheldon, manager of the Dimeling hotel, has resigned his position and has left Clearfield. Mr. Sheldon took his departure on Sunday morning, but where he went has not been learned.

Taken to West Virginia.

Edward Lines, released from the Clearfield county jail by order of the court Monday, was taken to Pocahontas county, West Virginia, last night by the sheriff of that county to answer for a crime alleged to have been committed in that state.

EXPECT A DELAY IN TRUST PROGRAM

Washington, June 10.—Following the conclusion of the consideration of the administration's trust bills it was declared here that there would be no final action taken on these measures until Oct. 1 at the earliest. The senate judiciary committee and the interstate commerce committee have concluded their hearings.

The impression in the judiciary committee, of which Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina is acting chairman, is that the trust bills will not be perfected in committee much before the middle of July. It is probable that further hearings will be held.

"The trade commission is not designed to aid business in any way and has no constructive powers," said Senator Lippitt. "It is merely an inquisitorial and punitive national detective agency, with a power to conduct Paul Pry investigations into business, large and small, of such a character that if not actually violating the fourth amendment to the constitution, protecting the

Senator Lippitt said it will cost the 150,000 business concerns it affects $20,000,000 annually to respond to its demands.

Snow Blocks Traffic as Mercury Falls to Forty.

Paris, June 10.—Snowdrifts on the boulevards of Paris were a novel June sight here. More than two inches of snow and hail fell, and along the Champs Elysees cab horses had trouble dragging their vehicles through piles of snow which drifted in the high winds.

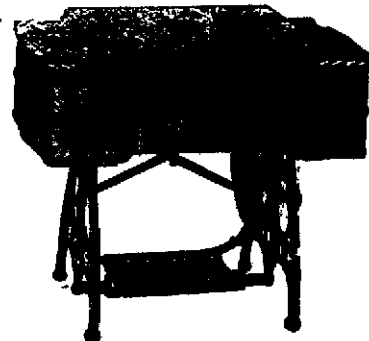

The temperature during the storm fell to 40 degrees.

Gets Whiskey as Loan Security. Washington, June 10.—Edward M. Pattison of Germantown, O., won title to 210 barrels of whiskey as security for a loan of $5,500 claimed by trustees in bankruptcy of David Rohrer, a Germantown distiller, who borrowed from Pattison and failed.

Stands on Issues.

ington party ticket, addressed a
Penrose lieutenant.

Focht, who was defeated for con-
was blowing. He got his bearings in a most unexpected manner.

house in confusion.

chot continued. "Ask yourselves what

Remember Brumbaugh.

Ben Focht.

ptied Over Her Body.

physician was called.

severe.

Dr. C. E. Chase has just closed a
move his mill during the coming week.
This is a nice piece of timber and it
petent man to oversee the work and
profession.

Prospective Yield.

its June crop report.

was grown in the United States in
wheat are responsible.

size in the history of the nation.

jured on Street.

fore the United States court. A. L.
for the borough.

damages.

The borough will appeal to higher
ed the banner.

will not be asked by the United States
administration will be content to have

pico for the Constitutionalists.

at Tampico, received orders from the

made at the offices of the Ward line
lla to the Constitutionalists leaders.

prevent the landing of the munitions.

said an official.

American Lines.

Peace Negotiations From Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, June 10.—General Huerta,
his minister of war, General Blanquet,
gotiations.

the American lines.

It was known that the Brazilian minister in the City of Mexico either has

City of Mexico it is learned Huerta has
his family to remain longer in the cap-
to get them out of the city.

railroad out of the capital.

rebels their chance to assassinate him.

can side.

CARRANZA'S REPLY READY.

Junta Says He Will Accept Mediation
on His Own Terms.

ply to the invitation to participate in

isfactory to the mediators.

sioners communicated a counter propo-
several respects from the draft approved by Huerta; but, according to Sec-

that the joint session at Niagara Falls,
the suggestions of the United States
are accepted it will make no difference
in time.

that the Constitutionalists will have adequate representation in the propos-

Pittsburgh, June 10.—Stringent orders from the police of East Pitts-
tem.

but they did it politely, knowing that
of strikers congregated, closely watch-
watchmen.

durance.

dictments Meant the Intention of
tions—Full Text of the New Order.

indictment of George Mullen and E.
J. Smith, of Grampian, on the charge
ney by the remonstrants or their attorney, also disposed of the applica-
hotels.

article.

Decision of the Court.

borough, and that of E. J. Smith by 23. A supplemental petition in favor
ter deducting duplications it appears
whom T. E. Moore afterwards signs
the supplemental petition and H. B.
Baehler signs all the papers filed.
men and 12 men of Penn township re-
monstrate, which is to be considered

Must Present Facts.

ters.

Question of Necessity.

Immorality at the Aberdeen hotel was also asserted, but solely by
of law are made, and as to the Grampian house the definite charges consist principally of sales to William Batlet, as to whom there is no evidence of sales during the past year;
not shown, except that he was drunk
briety referred to.

Defines Intemperance.

that it is spoken of in the community.

are sales to A. J. Anderson, Al Kan-
very closely.

ing at Grampian, according to the testimony. There is evidence that drunk

that such an effort is being actively
tions.

No matter what may be the need of
order, and unless the condition com-
out license.

voked.

This morning Messrs. Mullen and
Grampian, highly elated.

tertained at Luncheon.

Queen Victoria of Spain entertained
miles from Madrid.

ital early, accompanied by Ambassa-
four hours.

sure at the forthcoming marriage of
daughter of the ambassador. King Al-
London.

While here Mr. Roosevelt is accord-

Senator Dato, the prime minister, said:
"Miss Willard's marriage has aroused

The premier and his family will attend the wedding.
official said "whom we Spaniards re-
velt."

"There are ignorant and uneducated

From Homelessness and Poverty men to Die of Hunger—Ministers Quoted and All Parties in Measures.

great news that London will, it is all agreed, have lost patience with "The Standard" and that the women are ready to turn.

Several prominent church leaders
from now on. "Let them die" shall
views.

with responsibility for a number of
ory at Christchurch, Hampshire, for
quarter.

Last, but not least, the govern-
stood that the session would speedily suggestions for ending the long erated "reign of terror" and holding the militants accountable.

church hands who have come out favor of ending the long "reign of ter-

The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan,
die. Let them start at once and speedily for last time."

St. Matthew's, Brighton: "If the govern-
to die."

The Rev. Richard Frou, vicar of St.

No Peace For Rebels.
Meanwhile the militants themselves
realm and of adopting other extreme courses for improving their condition upon the public.

It is feared that the dangerous exhibition at the home show, where the militants hoisted the monarch, to be
some radical action is taken. It is ex-
can embassy to go unresisted.

Other activities of the "quaker" following the last twenty-four hours include the smashing with hammers of marble tombstones in a churchyard at
the wall of the church, the changing of the inscription "Votum Pro Woman" on
minor acts of vandalism.

WHEN?
lime?

plan Judge Bell ordered that indict-
law.

keepers and bar tenders in this county. When Mrs. Purcell, president of
eventually find themselves in court,
their licenses.

drunken orgies nightly testify. Somebody sells these men and boys intoxicating liquors, and it is the duty of

to book.

Wistar Elliot, a young lawyer of
now faces a charge of manslaughter,
down the woman.

It may surprise some of the motor-
be charged and tried for manslaughter.
Some of the motorists who run
comes to grief.

the president has mislaid the gradu-
question.

prison.

vertisement for Clearfield.

the lunacy court.

his wrecked aeroplane two miles out in
hydroplane.

Thomas Glipin of Spark, Okla., a play-

or have Bladder trouble.

ing the night.

sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive;
ney and bladder diseases.

WITH the return of Colonel Roosevelt after seven months spent in the wilds of South America public interest in the former president is divided between the stories of the thrilling adventures he encountered and conjecture as to his future political activities. The big question which he has not answered is, Will he run for the presidency in 1916? Another element of interest attaching to the colonel's return is the wedding of his son Kermit, who shared the perils of the Brazil wilderness with his father. Kermit is to marry Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of Colonel J. E. Willard, American ambassador to Spain, in Madrid on June 11.

Getting back to the United States the last of June, Colonel Roosevelt may start in September on a transcontinental stamping tour. This plan is contingent upon his health.

That the South American jungle trip is the last big adventure afield contemplated by Colonel Roosevelt he does not deny. "I went the ultimate," was his expression for the long odds

halt the journey until he was better. "I can't do it," was the undaunted reply. "I'll go as far as I can, and when I am unable to proceed farther I'll stay right there and fight it out alone." That night the colonel was in a critical state. "If I'm to go it's all right," he told the party's doctor, "but see that the others don't stop for me." However, he got better in the night and the next morning was past the crisis. "Knew I'd make it," he said, grinning.

WE had been out about three hours when one of the dogs gave a tongue in a large belt of woodland and jungle to the left of our line of march through the marsh. The other dogs ran to the sound, and after awhile the long barking told that the thing, whatever it was, was at bay or else in some refuge. We made our way toward the place on foot. The dogs were baying excitedly at the mouth of a huge hollow log, and a very short explains diversity in the traits by which nature achieves the perpetuation of species. Among the warrior and predacious insects the prowess is in some cases of such type as to render the possessor practically immune from danger. In other cases the condition of its exercise may normally be the sacrifice of the life of the possessor.

There are wasps that prey and formidable fighting spiders, which yet instinctively so handle themselves that the prey practically never succeeds in either defending itself or retreating, being captured and paralyzed with unerring efficiency and with entire security to the wasp. The wasp's safety is absolute.

the termites, are frantically eager for a success which generally means their annihilation: the condition of their efficiency is absolute indifference to their own security. Probably the majority of the ants that actually lay hold on a foe suffer death in consequence; certainly they not merely run the risk of but eagerly invite death.

Cherrie and Miller had secured a lit tle owl in the chaco, and it was traveling with them in a basket. It was a dear little bird, very tame and affectionate. It liked to be handled and petted, and when Miller, its especial protector, came into the cabin it would make queer little noises as a signal that it wished to be taken up and perched on his hand.

Cherrie and Miller had trapped many mammals. Among them was a tayra weasel, whitish above and black below, as big and bloodthirsty as a fisher martin, and a tiny opossum no bigger than a mouse. They had taken four species of opossum, but they had not found the curious water opossum which they had obtained on the rivers flowing into the Caribbean sea.

This opossum, which is black and white, swims in the streams like a muskrat or otter, catching fish and living in burrows which open under water. Miller and Cherrie were puzzled to know why the young thrive, leading such an existence of constant immersion. One of them once found a female swimming and diving freely with four quite well grown young in her pouch.

and no especial affinities with other modern birds. In one meadow by a pond we saw three marsh deer, a buck and two does. They stared at us with their thickly haired tails raised on end. These tails are black underneath instead of white as in our white tail deer.

One of the vagaries of the ultra concealing colorationists has been to uphold the (incidentally quite preposterous) theory that the tail of our deer is colored white beneath so as to harmonize with the sky and thereby mislead the cougar or wolf at the critical moment when it makes its spring, but this marsh deer shows a black instead of a white flag, and yet has just as much need of protection from its enemies, the jaguar and the cougar.

Biting Jungle Insects.

The fire ants, of which I have spoken, are generally found on a species of small tree or sapling with a greenish trunk. They bend the whole body as they bite, the tail and head being thrust downward. A few seconds after the bite the poison causes considerable pain; later it may make a tiny festering sore.

There is certainly the most extraordinary

Stores Closed and Newspapers Not Published in All Cities.

Rome, June 10.—The Socialist strike, called as a protest for the killing of several of their faith at Ancona, has spread to practically all the principal Italian cities.

In nearly all, as in Rome, the street cars and cabs were not running, newspapers were not publishing, stores were closed down, and business in general was at a standstill. Troops patrolled the streets.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Henry James Stuart-Richardson, seventy-seven, fifth Earl of Castlestead, died in London. He was the male representative of the royal Stuarts.

Juan Buitrago, professor of music and teacher of many famous musicians, died in Florence, Italy. Among his pupils best known to this country are the late Edward A. MacDowell and Albert Spalding.

Edward G. Brill, vice president and treasurer of J. G. Brill & Co., car builders, the last of the four sons of the late James G. Brill, who founded the car works, died of pneumonia at his home in Atlantic City at the age of sixty-three years.

CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane, which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Oseola Mills, June 10.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkinson, one of our oldest and most highly respected women, died at her home on Hale street at an early hour Tuesday morning. She had not been in good health for some time and recently contracted pneumonia, which was the cause of her death. Deceased was over 82 years of age and had lived here for almost 48 years. Her husband, Joseph Wilkinson, died about four years ago.

The following children survive her: Samuel, Thomas of Vineland, N. J., Mrs. John Bratton, Mrs. William Jones, of California; Joseph William, and Mrs. Richard Thomas. Funeral will probably be held Thursday afternoon. Interment will be made in Umbria cemetery.

William Edwards, who went to the western states about seven months ago, hoping to be benefited in health, returned this morning. We regret to state that the young man has not been benefited as he had hoped to be. William says there were too many Mormons out there, and old Pennsylvania is good enough for him.

Miss Rachel and Mary Biddle returned yesterday from a week's visit at New Millport, where they attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Biddle, of that place.

As a precaution against the further spreading of scarlet fever in this town, several dogs belonging to families in the neighborhood of Albert James' home have been shot. We are informed that before the nature of the disease with which Francis James was stricken was known to family the boy's pet dog was allowed to be with him and then played with other dogs in that locality. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

The interest in the Tabernacle meetings is waxing warmer in competition with the weather man. There was no service Monday, it being rest day for the evangelistic party. The chorus choir met for rehearsal at 7.30 and put in an hour of solid work. Additional ventilators have been placed in the side of the building, which will add to the comfort of all. Lights have been placed around the outside of the building also, which will add to its appearance.

The committees appointed to arrange for "special delegations" are already at work. The Masonic fraternity and the Patriotic Sons of America, at their meetings Monday night, appointed committees to arrange for a night when special trains will bring delegations from neighboring towns. The P. O. S. of A. placed a large American flag on the building Tuesday evening.

George R. Sheldon, manager of the Dimeling hotel, has resigned his position and has left Clearfield. Mr. Sheldon took his departure on Sunday morning, but where he went has not been learned.

Edward Lines, released from the Clearfield county jail by order of the court Monday, was taken to Pocahontas county, West Virginia, last night by the sheriff of that county to answer for a crime alleged to have been committed in that state.

Washington, June 10.—Following the conclusion of the consideration of the administration's trust bills it was declared here that there would be no final action taken on these measures until Oct. 1 at the earliest. The senate judiciary committee and the interstate commerce committee have concluded their hearings.

The impression in the judiciary committee, of which Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina is acting chairman, is that the trust bills will not be perfected in committee much before the middle of July. It is probable that further hearings will be held.

"The trade commission is not designed to aid business in any way and has no constructive powers," said Senator Lippitt. "It is merely an inquisitorial and punitive national detective agency, with a power to conduct Paul Pry investigations into business, large and small, of such a character that if not actually violating the fourth amendment to the constitution, protecting the

Gets Whiskey as Loan Security. Washington, June 10.—Edward M. Pattison of Germantown, O., won title to 210 barrels of whiskey as security for a loan of $5,500 claimed by trustees in bankruptcy of David Rohrer, a Germantown distiller, who borrowed from Pattison and failed.
